

Travelling around London

The easiest way to get around London is by public transport. This leaflet provides brief information about the various transport options available to you, including useful maps to guide you around the city.

Enjoy total freedom

The most economical way to get around London is with a Travelcard. One day and 3 Day versions are available, allowing you to make unlimited journeys on public transport within the zones you have selected. Travelcards are valid on:

- Tube
- DLR
- Buses
- Tramlink
- Most National Rail services within the Greater London area
- Scheduled Riverboat services at 1/3 off the normal fare. (Pick up a Riverboat service guide for further information.)

Heritage bus routes

Travelcards are valid on the Heritage Routes. The famous Routemaster buses run every 15 minutes daily, between 0930 and 1830, so you can hop on and off while visiting London's attractions. There are two routes in operation alongside the standard services on:

- Bus route 9: between Royal Albert Hall and Aldwych
- Bus route 15: between Trafalgar Square and Tower Hill

These buses are not wheelchair accessible.

Where to buy

Travelcards are available:

- At all Tube stations
  - At Travel Information Centres, which also offer travel advice, free maps and entry tickets to many attractions. They are located at:
    - Tube stations: Heathrow Terminals 1, 2 and 3, Liverpool Street and Piccadilly Circus.
    - National Rail stations: Euston and Victoria.
    - Bus and Coach stations: West Croydon* and Victoria.
    - Camden Direct* (opposite St. Pancras Station).
- *Closed Saturday and Sunday.
- Online, in advance, at ticket-on-line.co.uk
  - Through overseas agents at tfl.gov.uk/agents
